

ATLAS Privacy Policy

Version 1.0

1. Definitions

ATLAS (the "Site ") is a website developed and operated by VACenter ("The Company", "we", "our", "us"). For purposes of this Agreement (defined below), "you" and " your" mean the user of the computer on which the website will be or has been viewed. The account protected side of the website (the "App") is the area of the Site in which access is restricted via the permissions and account restrictions setup by VACenter.

The practices described in this privacy policy apply to information gathered through our site, "ATLAS", and do not reflect our practices with respect to information gathered through offline means or through our other services.

This privacy policy will be published in English. If this privacy policy is published in any language other than English, the English language version will be the governing agreement and shall control interpretation of all matters discussed below.

Please read the following carefully and do not hesitate to contact us via privacy@va-center.com if you have any questions about how we use your personal information. Use of the site is subject to the Terms of Use and to our personal information gathering and dissemination practices and policies described below.

2. What information do we hold about you?

Your personal information

If you have created an ATLAS account, we hold your name and email address for the purpose of identification. We obtain this when you create your account on the site or when you modify settings in App.

3. How long do we keep your data for?

We keep your data until your account is terminated. You can request for us to terminate your account by contacting us through privacy@va-center.com.

4. What are your rights?

- Request access to all personal data about you we store.
- Request for us to update your personal information.
- Request data deletion. Note this will result in the termination of your account.
- Request termination of processing. This would require the termination of your account and the subsequent deletion of your personally identifiable data.

To do so, please contact us through privacy@va-center.com.

5. Where do we store your data?

VACenter operates servers globally through our supplier Digital Ocean.

6. How can I contact VACenter about privacy?

You can send questions and complaints to privacy@va-center.com.
